DISPATCH NO. WMA-21577

SECRET
CLASSIFICATION

MAY 22 1951

DATE: 14 August 1950

TO: Chief EDM

FROM: Chief of Station, Karlsruhe

SUBJECT: GENERAL

SPECIFIC: General Andras ZAKO

REFERENCE: WMA-21379; WMA-20272 (not to FOR); 75-CHOKG; 95-CHOKG (see PULP, Wash);
(WMA-20272) PULL-211

1. In 75-CHOKG, [ ] requested available information on Laszlo BARTOK, General FRANKAS de Barnahzy, General Andras ZAKO, and LOPJAS, the so-called Hungarian government-in-exile organization.

2. Since, in WMA-930 ZAKO was reportedly connected with OFFSPRING (OFFSPRING stated he is not employed), we asked that [ ] clarify his interest in Subject (WMA-20272).

3. 95-CHOKG from [ ] states that interest concerning Subject has taken no definite form to date but that any outstanding or derogatory information would be of use.

4. Karl files contain quite extensive information on Subject and his activities. However, since we do not know what action Washington contemplates in re WASH 8034 which reports ZAKO's proposition to [ ] and PULL 211 which states that ZAKO has made the same proposition to OFFSPRING through GVI and also CVA, we believe the decision as to what information is to be passed to [ ] rests with Washington Headquarters. We are, therefore, informing [ ] that the matter has been referred to your Headquarters for answer.

5. A copy of the memorandum to [ ] (WMA-21577, 14 August) is being forwarded for your information and reference.
